Gentlemen:

I am enclosing herewith the four coins I discussed with you over the telephone yesterday.

What I am anxious to determine is whether or not the coins have value and if so, what they are worth. If it is possible for you to give me this information I shall appreciate it.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss McComber:

Your favor enclosing the four coins received. We will identify these when we have cleaned three that need cleaning very badly. Two of these will take a number of weeks to get the bad spots off of them as the cleaning process is very slow. I will then communicate with you again.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss McComber:

I am herewith returning the four coins which we have cleaned. These we have attributed.

None of them are rare and the condition of the three ancient ones precludes their being worth more than a few cents each. The papal one would be probably worth about 25¢.

Very truly yours,
